Announcements

Students: If you are scheduled to take summer school this summer, make sure to hold on to your Chromebooks. You will not return them until after summer school ends.

Dons: Do you love taking pictures or filming short videos? Do you want to learn how to hack your phone or camera to get the highest quality? Learn to film and edit like a pro when you sign up for Video Production. If you have experience, it may be possible to skip into the Video Production 2 class. Stop by Room 413 at Lunch TODAY to get more information.
